A friend brought to this office a stalk of wild lettuce, from this spring's seed-and that farmers should spare no effort to exterminate it on its first appearance.

On Monday, John Harrison brought to this office a bunch of wheat that was thoroughly ripened. While it was made up of selected heads, and was not a fair specimen of an entire field, yet it indicated a marvelous condition of wheat for the middle of June. Many pieces will be fit to cut in a very few days.

the contest.

Messrs. Sweet and Carr of Cass county have been present in court caring for the complainant's side of the case of Reynolds vs. Reynolds. L. A. Tabor appeared for the defense, which was to have been conducted by the late Spafford Tryon of Dowagiac, if he had lived to attend to it.

As he was coming from school, yesterday afternoon, Chas. Mather's little boy fell on the sidewalk near Wm.
Killefer's, striking his forehead and stunning him. He was carried into Mr.
Killefer's house and Dr. Hoyt was hastily summoned. Fortunately, the injury was not serious.

A Chinese proverb says: "Though a hundred men may make an encampment, it takes one woman to make a home." But it takes a man, and a genius, to make such perfect fitting clothing as the H. S. & M.'s, sold by the Whale Clothing Success. Special sale of boys' shirts is now on.

The name of R. E. Jennings should have appeared in the Maccabee quartet, in place of J. Haworth. Mr. Jennings, however, didn't spoil the excellent music. The quartet, Messrs. Cummings, Gilman, Jennings and Squier, will be prepared to furnish music as a republican campaign glee club.

Motions for new trials were argued before the court in the cases of Will H.
Longwell vs. the estate of Wm. R.
Hawkins, deceased, and the People vs.
Christiana Popenick. In the Longwell case the motion was granted and a new trial ordered; in the Popenick case the motion was denied, and the verdict of guilty stands as rendered by the jury.

The baccalaureate address at the M.
E. church, Sunday evening, by Rev.
Thos. E. Barr of Kalamazoo, was listened to by a congregation that crowded the church, and was one of the finest sermons ever delivered in Paw Paw on a similar occasion. Mr. Barr spoke of truth, law and love as the three fundamental principles of human life and activity. The address was finely analytical, sound, and couched in elegant language. Music was furnished by a double quartet of mixed voices.

The proprietors of the Bankson Lake resort have been conducting a spiritualist meetings there, as a means of attracting crowds, no association of spiritualists controlling the grounds.
The officers have suspected that liquor was being sold there, and last Sunday Leon Fellows, Frank Rimes and Clarence Young were arrested; it is said some of the deputies purchased "hop ale" and inspected the government license.

They were brought before Justice Warner of this place, Monday, charged with violation of the local option law.
They demanded an examination, which was set for June 23 at 10 a. m.

The Southwestern Michigan Spiritualist Association will hold its annual meeting at Lake Cora, Sunday, June 28. Services at 10:30 a. m. and 3 p. m.
Mrs. Jennie Hagan Jackson of Grand Rapids, who is too well known to need commendation, and Mrs. Anna L. Robinson of Port Huron, one of the most wonderful test mediums in the state, will the speakers for the occasion. Mrs.
Robinson will give tests at the close of each session, and Mrs. Jackson will improvise poems from topics given by the audience. A fee of 10 cents will be charged each adult for admission to the grounds, carriages free. Special trains will leave Paw Paw at 9:15 and 1:45; fare, 25 cents for round trip.

Last evening, Vice-President H. D.
Deam and others representing the Benton Harbor and Eastern Railway and Transit Co., met a public meeting of the citizens of Paw Paw at the court house, to talk over the matter of running another railroad into this place.
The plan in brief is as follows:

The company will put a line of boats on between Benton Harbor and Chicago and propose to build a standard gauge electric line eastward and northward through the fruit belt, to be operated in connection with the steamers. The survey is already made to Sister Lakes and work is about to begin at that end of the line. It is desired to strike Keeler, Decatur, Paw Paw, Gobleville and Allegan.

No definite proposition was made, but Mr. Deam says the road will surely be built, and will come to Paw Paw if the people want it. This is the first definite, tangible railroad proposition that has come to Paw Paw in many years, and should be carefully considered. A committee of our leading citizens will investigate the project, both as to feasibility and the responsibility of the parties back of it, and will report at a public meeting at the court house next Wednesday evening. Let all citizens turn out.

If the road is to be built, the NORTH-ERNER believes that Paw Paw wants it and will have it if the terms on which it can be secured are not unreasonable.
